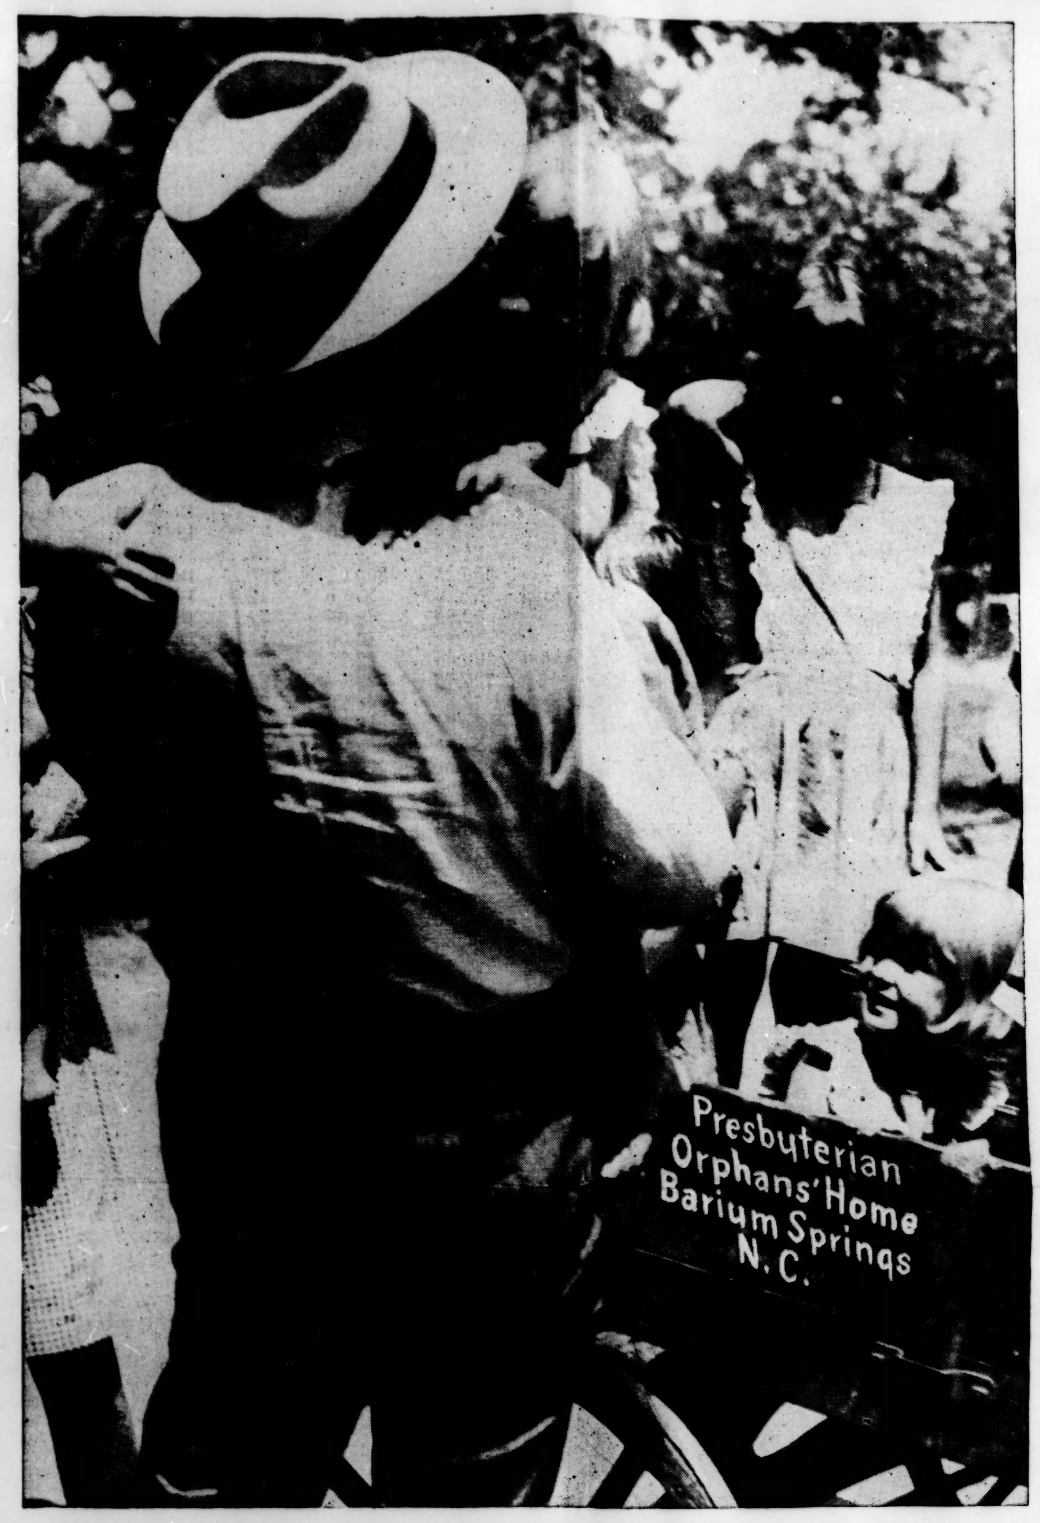
The 1947 Meeting of Synod

By JOS. B. JOHNSTON

Synod met this year at Flora Macdonald College, and evidently the memory of the delightful meeting at Barium in '44 still lingered in the minds of the commissoners because they honored me by electing me Moderator. This was the first time that I was elected commissioner to attend Synod since the meeting here in '44. There can be no doubt but that it was the splendid way in which Synod was served while here that brought about this election, and not from any excellence on my part.

The Synod was on its best behaviour. No controversial matters were brought up. The actual business of moderating the assembly appeared easier than at any time in recent years, and the final hymn, "Blest Be The Tie That Binds" was sung with enthusiasm, and I believe without any mental reservations.

Next year Synod meets at Montreat. This is the first time, we believe, that it has met out of the bounds of the Synod. Montreat is just twelve miles beyond the extreme limit of the North Carolina Synod. Some day we will have them back at Barium. We hope we will have a new Church for them to meet in when they do meet here.



With a Linda on each arm, one a happy blonde, the other a slightly worried brunette, Superintendent Johnston shows he is not partial. The little brunette was a new-comer when the picture was taken. She is now as happy and smiling as her companions.

Alumni News

We have had a number of visitors on the campus this month:

Wilma Jessup, Paul Burney, Donald Pettus, Jack Caldwell, Mott Price, Pleas Norman, Billy Dunn, Ray Huddleston. Earl Adams, Gene and Thelma Shannon of High Point, Clarence Robards and his wife and Elizabeth Robards, Bennie Gregory, Nina Berryhill, Lucile Smith and Hannah Price.

Marley Sigmon is coaching football and teaching at the Mills Home, Thomasville.

Dennis Williams came by to see us. He is buying and selling cars and at present is in Ashe County.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mosley (Ida Bell Dunn) of Laurens, S. C. were visitors on the campus.

We were glad to have Ruth Bobbitt and her family visit us, also Robert Blue, his wife and two children.

Born to Clarence Clarke and his wife on September 6th a son, Joe Stephen, weight 9 pounds.

Toni DeLancey of Charlotte spent the week-end at Barium.

Born to Wallace and Birdie (Whitener) Twombly, at Davis Hospital, September 17, a daughter, Ruth Elizabeth.

Fred Cole is spending some time in Statesville with Ed. He has been away for two years. He will be stationed in California at the termination of his leave.

Mary Ann McCormick was a visitor at Barium.

Stanley and William Smith and Janie Smith Linchieum made a visit to Barium.

Home-coming Day Will Be October 17th

Home-coming Day is drawing near. It will be on October 17th and part of the attraction for the day will be a game of football with Lexington. We hope more of the old-timers will come in early in the morning of the 17th. We count on them (that is these early comers) to help at the pep meeting which we always have on the morning of Home-coming Day. It does something to our football team and they seem to play better ball that afternoon than in any other game of the year. They will need encouragement like that this year because the team which they will meet is one of the strongest on our schedule, one which has already beaten Statesville 35-0.

However, the football game is not the biggest event of the day. It is getting back together and renewing friendships and making plans for the future. Several days ago we had a visit from an old-timer, Laxton Sherman. He was one of the very first children entered after the founding of the Orphanage, and was part of that family which was living in the old hotel when it burned.

Home-coming days were not so well attended during the war and that was understood. Now, we are looking for more and more of those Hebrews 8:5: See that thou make all things according to the pattern showed thee in the Mount.

PATTERNS

When Moses was to have the Tabernacle built God told him just how He wanted it built and gave him patterns for every part. He gave him patterns for the walls; the courts; the altars; the tables; the lamps; candlesticks; everything. And God told Moses to use those patterns and make each part according to pattern.

All well made articles are made by pattern.

I used to go into a large iron foundry. They had hundreds of patterns for all kinds of metal ware. I have watched the workmen as they select a pattern, say of a part of a stove, put it in a hinged frame, fill around it with moist sand Then, lifting the frame take out the pattern, leaving the imprint in the sand. Then they would pour in molten metal and the molten metal would fill every crack left by the pattern. So when the metal cooled and hardened it would be exactly like the pattern.

Barium Defeats Mooresville 6 - 0 In Season's Opener

Barium's 1947 football season opened on the afternoon of September 19th. The Mooresville team was the visitor, and along with the team came Mooresville's splendid high school band and the biggest crowd of rooters that we have had in many a day. The afternoon was hot but the game started out as a fast proposition and it was good throughout, although in the second half the heat slowed both teams down somewhat. Barium's lone score was made by Jack Clark, and in that second quarter it was Jack who did most of the ball carrying. The backfield was composed of Jack Clark and Jack Mangum, veterans; Charles Barrett, a veteran end but playing his first game in the backfield and Paul Barnes playing his first game as a varsity player. In the line Mason Traywick played his first conference game and stayed through the entire four quarters. The whole team did surprisingly well. Mooresville brought an experienced, well-coached team. They showed evidences of power and played a splendid defensive game. They will be heard from later in the season. This game with Mooresville is the only conference game that Barium plays in September.

A Committee Meeting

The Board of Regents usually has an Executive Committee meeting during the summer, and one of the things that was supposed to be looked after was the purchase of furniture for Lees Cottage living room and a few other things. Well, the summer seemed so full of so many things that this meeting was never held, but a special committee visited Barium on September 22nd and unanimously approved the purchase of this furniture. So in a short time the Lees boys can be as proud of having visitors as the Howard girls are at the present time.

A number of years ago we had contests in housekeeping and each month some visitors would be asked to inspect all of the cottages and to award the prize for a month. The prize was the privilege of flying a particular flag at that cottage for a month. The practice was discontinued owing to the difficulty of getting people to do the judging. We believe that if it were in practice today the Lees boys would rate high. although the competition would be mighty keen.

to make it. Before a church is built pictures, designs, blue prints of the walls, the framing, the spire, the heating, the lights, the arrangments of the seats has to be prepared. It all has to be done according to pattern. Before a weaver can make a yard of cloth a pattern must be made. In an automobile there are thousands of parts. Before any one of them is cast a pattern must be made.

Now in the making of Character in the building of a life; in the weaving of a fabric of our existence we need a pattern to go by.

What patterns do we have?

Happy is the boy who can say I want to be as good a man as my father. Happy is the girl who can say I want to be sweet and lovely like my mother.

There are other great and good men whom we may take as our pattern. Paul could say "Whatsoever ye have seen in me do".

James says "Take my brethren, the prophets who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience". But the complete and perfect pattern we find in the life and character of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Hear him as he says, "Come unto Me all ye that labor." "Take my yoke and learn of me". Peter says in his first letter, "Christ suffered for us leaving us an example that ye should follow." It means a copy to write under. Do you remember the copies in the old copy books? We wrote under them and the further down the page the worse our writing. The blots the smears the thumb marks and the scrawls gave evidence we were getting farther away from the copy. Then we would turn the page to another copy. Yes keep close to the pattern of Jesus. At His last passover He washed their feet and said, "I have given you an example that as I have done ye should do". And Paul says, "Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus." There are flaws in every pattern but that of Christ, so mould your life according to His pattern. Say, "Make me and mould me after thy will.

While I am waiting yielded and still."

Where is the pattern seen?

Our text says the pattern was showed in the Mount. Do you remember how Jesus went up into a Mount and He sat down and taught them saying "Blessed are the poor in spirit"? On another day He was transfigured. Yes on another Mount He was crucified. On another Mount He said "Go ye and desciple, baptizing". On another Mount He ascended and a cloud received Him. Yes go into the realms of the spirit world to get your pattern and go down into the valley to serve as He did.

If we mould our lives real closely after that of Jesus Christ we may be given the blessing of being an example for others who are not close enough to Jesus to have Him for an example. That is what Paul meant when he wrote to Titus. "In all things showing thyself a pattern of good works". We are apt to say to others "Don't do as I do, do as I say do". But the urgency is upon us not only to deliver the precept but also to set the example.

There is one more little word I want to speak of. It is a little word of three letters but it covers a lot of territory. The word is all, A-L-L-. See that thou make all things by the pattern. That means that we are to be like Jesus when we kneel in prayer. And not only then but when we are eating our dinner. And not only then but when we are engaging in games or enjoying pleasure, or in our work or when we are in the market place or off on vacation, or when we are in our homes or visiting with others.

Earthly pleasures vainly call me
I would be like Jesus.
Nothing worldly shall enthroll me
I would be like Jesus.
Be like Jesus this my song
In the home and in the throng
Be like Jesus all day long
I would be like Jesus.

day night supper and the food prepared and served there tastes, if anything, even better than that served at Camp. The Sunday before our opening game the girls prepared a steak supper for the boys. Well, after that the boys just couldn't help but win that first game. The next Sunday it was outdoor fried chicken, and that deserved another victory. Barbecue is on the menu for the next Sunday.

In addition to this grill, Mrs. Bryant has interested herself in flowers and shrubbery and she says that she can use all of such things that our friends can give her. So keep that in mind. If you have any bulbs, shrubs, or flowers that you wish to donate you will find them flourishing later on in this Lottie Walker park.

IT IS CHRIST OR NOBODY

I have looked the whole planet over, and I see no man but Jesus only who is able to take away the sin of the world. I have sat at the feet of the world's crowned religious leaders, and I have seen all the great religions in their homes, and I know that it is Christ or nobody. No one else has the slightest chance of winning the homage of the entire human race. More and more, he is what he was to Saul of Tarsus—"The image of the invisible God." More and more, he is to me what he was to John the Beloved—"God made manifest in the flesh." More and more, he is to me what he himself claimed to be, the eternal Son of the living God. To know him in establishing on this earth the kingdom of righteousness and peace and joy, this is what makes my life more and more worth living.

PREJUDICES

By Russell H. Conwell

There is such a thing as being insanely conscientious. It is a kind of unnatural false form, an imitation, a sort of counterfeit of real conscientiousness. With such people their prejudices are often their conscience. If a man be prejudiced against a thing, his false conscience will immediately arise and condemn it to be wrong. Did you ever study human nature enough to see how many good Christian people get a prejudice, and try to support it by the Scriptures? Everything is wrong against which the man happens to hold a prejudice. Every thing is wrong which that Christian man or woman dislikes. If he thinks it is wrong for himself to go to church in one cut of clothing, it is wrong for another person to go in that style of suit. If he dislikes anything in social life, then it is wrong for any person to do that thing. We find it also exhibited in the tendency of some excellent Christian people to think all religion must be sour and gloomy. The person's conscience persuades him to feel that nothing is religion unless it is dark. He is not sensitive to anything that is cheerful, not sensitive to anything that is beautiful. All things to him work together to bring gloom if they work together for good. Hence his religion is all conscientious dullness against everything hopeful, against all brightness and cheer." — Ex.

The salesman was demonstrating an old army jeep to a prospect when suddenly the jeep hit a bump and the prospect's wife was thrown out of the back seat.

The salesman glanced over his shoulder. "And the jeep has many other advantages over an automobile," he cautioned in his sales talk.
